v.

University of Houston,

Defendant.

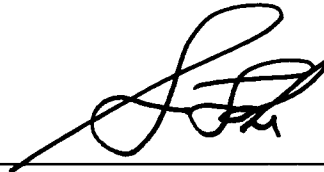

§

§

Civil Action No. H-23-837

ORDER

Defendant, University of Houston, has filed a Motion to Dismiss (docket no. 9). The motion seeks dismissal pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). The court's normal practice is to allow only one dispositive motion per party, and the court sees no reason to make an exception in this case. If the University of Houston's motion to dismiss is denied, the court will therefore not allow it to file a motion for summary judgment. If the University of Houston wishes to withdraw the motion to dismiss, the court will enter a docket control order that includes a date for motions for summary judgment. The court requests that the University of Houston inform the court of its decision by June 12, 2023.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on this 5th day of June, 2023.
